

English

December Year 5&6

Tutor In A Box

Circle the correct spelling:
John was allowed /aloud to go to the shop alone.

Add a fronted adverbial to this sentence:
I went to play basketball with my friends.

Add a determiner to this sentence:
Beth petted _____ dog.

Underline the subordinate clause:
As I was walking, I noticed a shadow on the ground.

Turn this reported speech into direct speech:
Mr Brown said that he had seen the thief.

Underline the relative clause:
Jane, who was a skilled artist, drew a beautiful portrait.

Add the missing plural possessive apostrophe:
The horses coats were extremely well cared for.

Write a sentence that contains a modal verb.

Use a dictionary to define these words:
debate, arrogant, exhausted

Spot the pronouns:
We live with our parents in Birmingham.

Move the subordinate clause to the start of this sentence:
Usain Bolt was still a fast runner, even though he tired easily.

List three prepositions. Now use one in a sentence.

Learn the spellings:
curiosity, definite, desperate.

Rewrite this sentence using Standard English:
He didn't get none of his work done after school.

Find a synonym for these words:
tired, lost, happy

Add a suffix to the word 'happy' to create a new word.

Write an example of a command sentence.

Change these words using a prefix:
usual, kind, like

Learn the spellings:
determined, develop, dictionary.

Punctuate this direct speech:
Lucy exclaimed loudly why did you do that?

Correct the spelling mistakes:
If you don't help me immediately, then I will not be available tomorrow.

Write a main clause to go with this subordinate clause:
When it is raining, _____.

Write three interesting questions you would ask your favourite superhero.

Complete this sentence by adding a subordinating conjunction and further information:
The tractor was stuck in the mud...

Circle the two words that are synonyms of each other in the sentence below:
I am very tired today: it is exhausting chasing after this dog!

Rewrite this sentence formally:
I don't really care what they're doing.

The word 'lock' can be used as a noun and a verb. Write a sentence using it as a noun.

Write the first paragraph of a story using this adverbial opener:
On a wildly dark and stormy night,

Learn the spellings:
disastrous, embarrass, environment.

Circle the modal verb in this sentence:
I might go to Wales next weekend.

Which determiner - a or an?
I think _____ apple is a healthy food item.

